BRIEF NEWS NOTATION.

George O. Dozier, the Richmond monument man, is dead.

An attempt was made to burn the town of Albany. A suspected young man was driven out of the place.

Judge McCrory, of Montezuma, fined a brute $25 for stabbing his horse because the animal would not pull.

A lunatic from Campbellsville got away from the officers at Lebanon and terrorized women and children till captured.

The Welch-Hackley Coal and Oil Company has purchased about 18,000 acres of land in Knox county and will begin operations there.

J. A. Craft has sued W. E. Harren for $10,000 in the Fayette circuit court, alleging that he failed to carry out certain small contracts to Texas sublet to him by Craft.

The sheriff of Casey county arrested McClelland Woodrum and his brother-in-law, Tucker, for the murder of Lucien Marble in that county last week. The prisoners are now in jail at Lebanon.

In the case of the wholesale grocers of Louisville, indicted in Whitley county for combining to fix prices, it is urged by the defense that the antitrust law of 1890 has become inoperative under the new constitution.

Friends of J. A. Craft, of Louisville, formerly of Lexington, will sympathize with him in the loss of his only son, Robert M. Craft, a bright young man of 20 years, who died of heart failure. The remains were taken to London for interment.

On account of the extremely critical illness of Mr. W. G. Raney, Third Street, between Broadway and Lexington has been temporarily closed to vehicles. Dolph Rice has sold a half interest in his library business to his old partner, J. A. Yeager, and the firm will again be Yeager & Rice.—Danville Advocate.

The railroad commission granted petition of coal companies in the South-eastern part of the State, along the L. & N., asking that the long and short-haul clause be inoperative to Lexington, Winchester, Richmond and Jefferson, the other is presented by the receiver of the Southern railroad, that it be inoperative as regards Ludlow, Louisville, Frankfort, Nicholasville, Williamson and High Bridge, these points coming in competition with the extreme low river rates.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

George W. Klingman will preach at the court-house Sunday afternoon next at 3 o'clock.

A fair picture and a good write-up of Rev. F. W. Allen appears in the current issue of the Lexington Messenger. Rev. C. H. Conwell, D. D., darling his pastorate of the Temple Church, Philadelphia, has baptized 3,750 converts.

Elder J. G. Livingston writes: Our meeting closed at Goshen last night, resulting in 12 additions to the church. One of the best meetings ever held at this place.

Charges were laid against the Rev. Snodsmith and the Rev. Barker at the Methodist conference in session at Carmichael, but they were not made public. Committees of investigation were appointed.

Rev. W. W. Bruce, who now lives at Perryville, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church at Hustonville, announces his advocacy of Goebel and says that he will take great pleasure in voting for him.

Rev. F. M. Kuykendall, a Baptist minister of Garrard, says down in Franklin where he has been preaching, he didn't see a single man against Goebel, who is a worthy man and will be elected governor.

Rev. John Reeves, presiding elder, is on trial before the Carlisle conference, on secession charges preferred by Rev. Marshall, of Flemingsburg, and two strong factions are warring about the return of Rev. W. S. Gleastad to Millersburg. About 150 ministers are present. It is charged that the Rev. Reeves, upon the evidence of two prominent physicians there, has committed an unpardonable offense against secession. Rev. Reeves married first a lady from Georgetown, and his second wife was a resident of Flemingsburg. The name of the woman in the case has not been given.

The Negroes at Mt. Sterling say that in order to induce them to vote in the primary for Stone they were told that Taylor favored the Jim Crow car law and now they say they are told that it is all a mistake. But all the same they say they won't vote for Taylor till they get a clear expression from him that he is against the law.

Kansas farmers and business men have formed a trust called the Farmers' Federation of the Mississippi Valley, with $20,000,000 capital, for the purpose of controlling the price of farm products, particularly Kansas corn.

Nearly 18,000 acres of land in Knob county, was sold for $500,000.

MT. VERNON.

The Rockcastle Teachers' Association will meet at Brodhead Sept. 9th. The ladies of Livingston have a bathing club. A pool in Roundstone is its favorite resort.

Mrs. Frankie Gentey has been quite ill, but is better. Mrs. Ann Albright is visiting at Brodhead. Miss Ada May Adams, the talented schoolteacher, has been requested to organize a class in elocution at Livingston.

Owing to the fact that Sup't. Davis allowed the Berea Glee Club to perform on Wednesday evening of Inst. week, the date he had promised for the W. C. T. U. contest, and so unadvertised, the former made $20 and the latter $5. Many came from a distance to attend the contest, not knowing of the change.

Miss Patti Green, of Versailles, is visiting Mrs. M. C. Miller. Mrs. Annie Miller, of Washington, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Miller. Judge Williams has been very ill. Fred Kreuger was in Iron Harbor recently. Marshal Short arrested a moonshiner at the republican rally at London. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hethorn are on the sick list. Mrs. Abner Winkler, of Lebanon Junction is visiting in this country. Mrs. W. was formerly Miss Alva Stark, who once lived here.

Truly all the world is akin and all people like some recreation occasionally to vary the monotony of life. On our way from Virginia we stopped at Corbin to tell the L. & N. people of the merits of our new song, "In the Sunny South." There we found a large crowd of people assembled to enjoy the circus. Taking the train for Mt. Vernon we saw many board the train for the flood-head fair. We attended the fair the last day and found our old friend, Mr. E. E. Protheroe, president, making all feel at home and glad they attended.

With this letter we as correspondents, bid adieu to the many readers of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, hoping ever to be remembered kindly by those who have enjoyed reading our news notes from this place.

R. N.

We have as yet heard of no democratic candidate in this county for the Legislature.

Seventy tickets were sold for the Cincinnati excursion from here last Sunday morning.

Hockey Church, near this place, is holding a protracted meeting with a large attendance. Elder Young has charge.

The 17th Senatorial district republicans will hold a convention here next Tuesday to nominate a candidate for State Senator.

There is a movement on foot to have Goebel and Blackburn speak at the Brodhead fair grounds some time during next month when there will be no oil time barbecue and burgoo.

The telephone companies are making preparations to run a "metallic" circuit from Livingston to Danville, Stanford and Lancaster at once. It will require 150 miles of wire.

The Pine Hill Mining Co.'s lands and effects were sold at trustees' sale last Saturday and were bought by Col. J. A. August, the president of the company, for $5,500. The works will likely be started up at no early date.

Elliott Housard, who lives at Bagdad, Shelby county, dressed up as a ghost to scare a Negro. The Negro hit him with a rock over the eye, producing concussion of the brain and probably death.

Thirty-five hundred persons witnessed the ceremonies at the reinterment of John Brown's followers in the little graveyard at the John Brown farm at North Elba, N. Y. The bodies were taken from Harper's Ferry.

New Lano, who some years ago killed Hotel keeper Roderbaugh and son at Versailles, is in the Lexington jail to serve a sentence of 10 days for carrying concealed weapons, passed by the Jessamine county court.

Last Monday near Pine Hill a tree fell on Joe Perrell, a 17-year-old boy, causing death in an hour. The tree had been chopped down by young Perrell's father and a companion. It fell in a contrary direction to what was expected. The father, with assistance, had to saw the tree in two before they could move the boy.

The news batch on No. 24 yesterday agreed to furnish Bob Rucker, the lumberman, all the lumber he could eat for 25 cents. Rucker was begun at Brodhead and when Stanford was passed there 21 bananas had disappeared down Rucker's throat and the work was going bravely on when the bitch fainted.

Egbert Waller is from South Carolina, where he has been engaged for some months. Mrs. H. H. Conn, of Oklahoma, is visiting relatives in this county. Mrs. Mollie Ellis, of Bell Center, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. Gentry, this county. E. T. Fish, who has been traveling in Virginia and Maryland, is at home laid up with fever. Miss Patti Green, after some weeks' visit to this place, has returned to Versailles. Mrs. J. L. Whitehead, of Williamsburg, has been ill of typhoid fever for six weeks. L. M. Huie still remains ill. J. T. Adams is here from Bryantville. Col. J. A. August and Wm. Welsh, coal men, were here Monday. Misses Lena and Jessie McClure are visiting Parksville relatives.

While working on the road near town Wednesday afternoon James Colyer fired a blast and started to run, after picking up a powder can. His unknown cause the can exploded, severely burning his hands and face and firing his clothing. His cries of distress were answered by Lee Klueard, who knowing the blast would soon explode, went to the rescue and removed the clothing from the sufferer. In the mean time he kept a watch on the blast, which was but a few yards off. The explosion came and a large boulder was seen coming in the direction of the wounded man. Klueard dragged him out of the way in time to prevent his head from being mashed. Colyer will recover, though suffering terribly from his burns. Klueard deserves much credit for bravery displayed in his daring act.

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

Mrs. Julia Uppligrove committed suicide by hanging at Tompkinsville.

Ten, Joe Wheeler has been assigned to the command of Funston's brigade in the Philippines.

Henry Jones, of Middletown, Mo., died from the effects of biting one of his fingers terribly while mad.

A bad smash-up on the Erie resulted in the killing of one man and the wounding of 15 or 20 others.

LANCASTER.

Messrs. L. B. Hughes and Forrest McClary were in our city Thursday.

John Henderson, of Lowell, is sick of lever. The sick in our city are improving.

Mrs. James Curtis, of Houston, Tex., has been with her sister, Mrs. Jas. Dillon, tidily.

One hundred L. & N., Louisville Posts are being distributed here free of charge for two months. This is too many to advertise the paper and if it is done elsewhere it shows the power behind the throne.

Something of a very surprising nature is in store for the republican party of Garrard county. This is not written to create a sensation. The facts will be given later. Democrats will yet see their salvation in due time.

The Baptist Association at Mt. Tabor, near Paint Lick, was largely attended this week, and it was a season of enjoyment for the physical as well as the spiritual man, there being an abundance to eat, dinner being spread on the grounds each day.

Although Walker's School-house Precinct gave eight majority for the sale of liquor last month, Judge Burnside refused to grant a license last Monday, claiming that a majority of the legal voters protested by petition, which indicates that there was some irregularity in the election.

Mr. J. E. Robinson proved himself to be a politician in introducing Congressman Clayton last Monday and Mr. Clayton's exhortation of Bill Sweeney and the "Young Brown Johnnies," elicited considerable applause. He referred to them as decoy ducks and asserted that they could not deceive a one-eyed Negro in Alabama.

R. L. Jennings, a popular young merchant of Paint Lick, and Miss Lizzie, the beautiful and lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson, of this city, will drive to Danville on Wednesday, Sept. 6th, and take the marriage vows at Mrs. A. C. Dunn's, Elder J. L. Allen officiating. They go to Danville because the new residence of Mr. Thompson is not completed.

Rice Beng's stock pens near the depot were liberally patronized on Monday and they promise to be a favorite resort for stock men on public days, as the stock is well cared for and trading can be effected without interference. About 100 cattle, 400 sheep, milk cows and horses were handled at good price. This is a long needed enterprise and, besides being a great convenience, it keeps much life from the town.

Dismissals and continuances have been the principal orders in the circuit court this week. Chas. Williams, colored, was fined $50 for malicious cutting and wounding with intent to kill, to pay which he was put at hard labor.

The case of John Smith against Mrs. Sallie Ballard for $5,000 damages by accusing him of stealing corn, was dismissed and a suit similarly styled, was filed for $20,000 for making another accusation. Messrs. W. L. Williams and J. T. Hayes were appointed to examine applicants for law license and Mr. Jno. J. Johnson will be examined. Judge J. W. Alcorn attended court this week.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - SEPT. 1, 1899.

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Dr Governor, WILLIAM GOEBEL.
For Lieutenant Governor, J. C. W. BRECKHORN.
For Attorney General, R. J. BRECKINRIDGE. or Auditor, HUGO COULTER.
Treasurer, S. W. HAGER.
For Secretary of State, C. BRECK HILL.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction, HARRY NOCHESNEY.
For Commissioner of Agriculture, JOX B. NALL.
For Railroad Commissioner, C. C. MCCHORD.
For Representative, M. F. NORTH.

SENATOR GOEBEL certainly had on his fighting clothes at Howling Green Monday, where he and Senator Blackburn spoke to "acres of people," as the latter expressed it, there being 4,000 by the most conservative estimate. After asserting that he never assaulted a man in his life unless he first assaulted him, Senator Goebel said he asked no quarter and feared no man. Theodore Hallam had spoken in Bowling Green recently and said a good many things about the Senator and his family. They have both lived in Covington for 30 years. He had been honored with election to the State Senate longer than any other man. Hallam ran against him last time and got 600 votes, while he got 4,300 or seven times as many. Then he added: "Hallam said I had not changed a particle in appearance in 20 years. But I can't say as much for him. If I had been a drunkard and a debauchee, I, too, would have changed and would carry with me a face similar to a piece of caecaceous beefsteak. He may talk about my brothers, but I never had one in the penitentiary, and that is more than he can say for himself. He and Harvey Myers, while in the Legislature, were partners in drawing a monthly stipend from the lotteries. I passed the bill that took from them that stipend. Myers, while speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives, wrote a letter to Manager Frantz, of the Covington lottery offices, demanding $200 as a monthly stipend, and I have the original copy of that letter at home. That's the reason Myers was not returned to the Legislature and that's why he was defeated for Commonwealth's attorney by 2,000 votes."

Myers aided in the Lexington convention in nominating Jno. C. Droege for treasurer, although he had Myers indicted for attempting to bribe him while he was an alderman, to vote for an ordinance extending the franchise of a street railway. Myers escaped because the ordinance was not pending at the time Droege swore that the attempt to bribe him was made.

"And W. C. Owens, of Georgetown," continued the Senator, "is one of those who have been assailing me. While at Frankfort I did what I could to make it a felony to run a faro bank or roulette table and other gambling devices, and thereby I interfered with Owens' regular business. He was an applicant for office under McKinley and is doubtless preparing for another application."

He referred to W. C. Pollard Breckinridge as another of the publicationists, who were libelling him and said a mention of his name was sufficient. W. H. Mackay, another of the gang, was a member of the board of directors of a turnpike company when the Senator secured the passage of a law which resulted in cutting its tolls in half, and thereby interfered with his business somewhat.

Then the speaker went for the Louisville Post and Dispatch and showed that one of the editors of the latter, G. W. Smith, only escaped being a convict by a pardon granted him by Gov. Bradley. The other editors of the disreputable sheet are either habitual boasters or republicans. The whole speech was hot stuff and the way it was interrupted by applause shows that the boasters in Warren were either hid out or their number has been greatly magnified.

When Blackburn's time came he proceeded to do Brownie up Brown by refuting some of his many fallacies both as to history and the present campaign. In comparison with the L. & N.-Brown boister-free ticket-free lunch hippodrome, the meeting was clean out of sight. Brown's hearers usually got into the court-house, capable of holding only 600 people. The park was hardly sufficient to hold those who heard the next governor and the next Senator, and if Warren county doesn't give the democratic ticket all signs go for aught.

J. G. BAILEY, who ran against S. J. Shackelford for clerk of the court of appeals in 1867, will get a place in the Census Bureau if he can pass a civil service examination, which some people doubt as much as Gov. Bradley did the capacity of Taylor to do so, when he was asked if he was for the misfit attorney general for U. S. Senator.

In his speech at Lawrenceburg, Senator McCord produced the proof that Gov. Brown expressed the strongest friendship for Senator Goebel and while he was willing and anxious to be nominated for governor, he said he would not accept the nomination without the Senator's consent. Not one word did Brown say about his nomination must be secured by a clean or any other vote, except by the delegates then seated in the convention, which he wanted stamped to him. Mr. Urey Woodson corroborates McCord and is surprised that the statement of Brown that his visit was voluntary. Graham Vreeland, of the Courier-Journal, likewise substantiates McCord's statements. All of which convicts Brown of the basest duplicity and falsehood. The platform had been made at the time, it endorsed the Electoral bill, which Brown is now fighting, and the inference is that he would have championed that law, had he been nominated. When he wasn't and he began to see "great lights" and hear the tempting voice of the L. & N., he changed front and became the willing tool of the disappointed and disorganized. And the last end of that man shall be worse than the first.

JOHN R. MCLEAN, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, was nominated for governor of Ohio on the first ballot, over a field of six and as it makes no particular difference whether the State goes democratic or not this year, he will doubtless be elected. The platform reaffirms the Chicago platform in its entirety, demands Bryan's nomination in 1900, imperialism is unalterably opposed since our government cannot be republican and imperial, opposes entangling alliances with foreign nations, denounces the secret and vicious alliance now in evidence between England and the republican administration, whereby this nation may become involved in war with foreign nations, demands that the Cubans and Filipinos be allowed to establish independent republics, denounces trusts and ship subsidies, declares for the initiative and referendum, an eight-hour labor law, the prohibition of sweatshops and the abolition of the contract system of prison labor.

In his speech at Winchester, Judge Breckinridge reviled the China School Book bill and showed that the children of the State paid a tribute annually of $500,000 to the school book trust, demonstrating his argument by presenting two copies of American History, both printed by the same firm and identical in every particular. One was bought in Indiana for 65 cents, the other could not be purchased in Kentucky for less than $1. A comparative list of books used in the fifth grade of the common schools showed that while the children of Indiana get these books for $1.95 the children of Kentucky are forced to pay $2.00 for the same outfit. Indiana has a law similar to the China bill, which prevents the extortion and forces the school book trust to furnish books at reasonable prices or not at all. The China bill must go on the statute books next time, and it will go, if Goebel, North and other democrats are elected.

All things come to him who waits. We have waited long and waited patiently and have at last been rewarded. Yesterday notice came from W. J. Hugan, chairman, that we had been appointed as honorary member of the publicity and promotion committee of the Louisville Industrial Exposition to be held Oct. 9th to 21st, under the auspices of the Louisville Elks, and which promises to be the biggest thing on wheels.

The newspapers that speak of Goebel democrats and of the Lexington ticket as the democratic ticket, exhibit an ignorance of the situation. Those who support the Louisville ticket are democrats. The little band of paralegalists monkeying as a ticket and nominated by L. & N. employees and broken down politicians should be known by its real and true name—"The Taylor Aid Society."

THE Louisville Post prints a picture of Theodore Hallam, but it was taken long ago, before the moral and physical man had been destroyed by strong drink and debauchery, and when his face did not look as Senator Goebel describes it like a cancerous beefsteak. Hallam was a man once of great promise, but he is nothing more than a nut now.

OLD Billy Breckinridge says that it is the hit dog that howls, in his article in response to Goebel's strictures on him, and the way he writhes and twists and burbles, the old saw evidently holds good in his case. W. C. "Pollard" shuns unmistakably that he was hit and hit hard.

FOR some reason the Lexington Press has cut us from its exchange list, but it is all right. We can get along without a paper edited by a man who fights his own brother, and that brother a better man in every way than himself.

THEODORE HALLAM says there ought to be more speakers on the stump for the L. & N. ticket, forgetting that all who will vote that ticket or the Republicans, are already raring around hunting for audiences to address.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Goebel gave the Bryan campaign fund $700 in 1896. How much did Brown give?

A prominent Bourbon county republican says Goebel will be elected by a majority of 20,000.

Congressman J. W. Halley, of Texas, will spend a week in Kentucky for the democratic ticket.

The democratic campaign committee has engaged headquarters at the Galt House, Louisville.

Wayne county democrats nominated A. B. Owens, a popular merchant of Alex, for representative.

Joe Wilkinson, of Liberty, has been made chairman of the democratic campaign committee for Casey.

By actual count there are said to be just an even dozen of bolters in Frankfort, and they show signs of repentance.

It is very considerate of Maj. McKinley to stay away from New York Sept. 28-29, lest he divert some of the honors that are meant for Dewey.

Gov. W. J. Stone, of Missouri, will devote the week of the 12th to the 17th to speaking in Kentucky for the ticket. One of his dates will be at Lexington.

Dorsey W. Shaeckford, dem., was elected to succeed Congressman Bland, deceased, in the 8th Missouri district, 2,500 over his republican opponent.

The Louisville Post says it has the authority to state that Hon. P. W. Hardin will make no speeches during the campaign, which is doubtless a lie.

Caleb Powers, republican nominee for secretary of state, will speak 48 times during the canvass, which seems to be considerable over time for a short speech.

Brown was never popular at home and will get few votes in Henderson. When he ran for governor his majority was only 63, whereas the normal democratic majority is 800.

Mt. Sterling Negroes are threatening to bolt the republican ticket over their inability to secure an expression from Candidate Taylor against the separate coach law.

J. L. Earlywine, of Paris, will be Gov. Bradley's private secretary, succeeding Col. Fred Roberts, who has resigned to accept appointment as city judge of Owensboro.

City Judge C. N. Pendleton, of Owensboro, died Tuesday night. Col. Fred H. Roberts, Gov. Bradley's private secretary, probably will be appointed to fill the vacant office.

The celebrated Durham coal mines, situated on Lookout Mountain, have been sold to C. E. Johnson and associates for $200,000. They already own 3,000 acres of coal land adjoining.

The Post tells Goebel went into the convention with only 167 votes, having been used so extensively, that Owensboro Messenger is moved to correct it and say that he started in with over 300.

A vote for Brown will do him no good, but it will strengthen Taylor and to that extent weaken Goebel. When disaffected democrats cool off, they ought to think of this seriously.—Georgetown Times.

The democratic State campaign committee has arranged for a tour of the mountains by Senator Goebel, to begin at Greenup Sept. 13 and last 10 days. Capt. James Blackburn will accompany him, as the Senator has to go East.

Here's a pointer. The manufacturer of the large Goebel and Taylor buttons that retail for 15c, says that he has sold 16,000 with Goebel's picture and only 3,000 with Taylor's and that he can scarcely supply the demand for the former.

A prominent preacher of Boston who went to the Philippines with credentials from President McKinley, has returned and says that the war would have ended there long ago but for Gen. Ochs' incapacity. He is too small for a big thing as that.

John D. White says that under no circumstances would he vote for Taylor for governor because he is a political act entitled to support. He also said that the Bryan ticket would not get over 500 votes in the entire State, and that it was the weakest of political side-shows.

W. J. Bohun, the commercial tourist, tells the Cincinnati Enquirer, after a tour of the State, that the disaffection has not been greatly magnified but is rapidly disappearing and that he thinks it is safe to put Goebel's majority at anywhere from 10,000 to 30,000.

The vituperation and personal abuse of Senator Goebel which has become a persecution has reacted, and the people now know that it is from corporatism and curmudgeon influence which he has fought and they will respond with enthusiasm in November.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Miss Lily Duncan, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Chenuault, of Louisville and A. J. Draper, will marry on the 1st.

Upper Sandusky can lay claim to the oldest married couple in the State of Ohio, in Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stanley, who were married Aug. 19, 1818.

The annual report of the commissioner of pensions shows that during the year there were added to the pension roll 40,229 names and 43,186 were dropped, 34,315 of these by reason of death. There was expended for pensions $135,255,052.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

THE youngsters here who have dancing in their heads and not in their heels are preparing to import a professor to teach them the art.

THE G. A. R.'s will have a three days' reunion at Middleton's, 24 miles from Kingsville, Sept. 13-15. Among the speakers named are Col. T. P. Hill, Lodge T. Z. Morrow, George E. Stone, Dr. W. M. Doares and Elder J. Q. Montgomery. Saxton's band will furnish the music and meals will be served on the grounds at 15c, with horse feeds at the same price.

LAND AND STOCK.

300 stock ewes for sale, F. P. Bishop, Huber.

For SALE.—35 900-pound feeders, W. H. Shanks, Stanford.

Henley & Carter bought of various parties a bunch of hogs at 3c.

W. B. Griffith, the export cattle buyer, shipped from Georgetown, 80 cattle, bought at from 4 to 5c.—Times.

For SALE.—Nine calves, lot of mixed cattle, three sows and 25 shotes, one Jersey bull and two good horses. Mark Hardin.

The Breckinridge News says that E. & V. Robertson bought of Lake Green 120 steers, 1,150 to 1,900 pounds, at 4 to 5c.

E. T. Woods bought of Cameisech two fancy cows, 1,400 pounds, at 3c and of James Messer two 750-pound heifers at 3c.

Hudson & Page bought of various parties 80 fat 210-pound hogs at 3c. J. B. Honaker bought a number of aged mules at $5 to $115.—Adair News.

J. N. Stratton has a grape vine in his yard that produced 22 gallons of shelled grapes this season, besides what has been picked off and eaten.—Lawrenceburg News.

J. S. Bogie sold to Thos. Prine, of Greensburg, Ind., 100 feeding cattle at 4.35 and 40 at 4c and of Chas. McDonald 70 100-pound feeders for October delivery at 4.1c.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

Robert Carrick, of Scott county, purchased of John Arnsperger, his Scarle Wilkes mare, Alice Frazier, for $800. Arnsperger bought the mare two years ago for $10. She has only been worked since June 1, and has shown a full mile in 2:18.

Investigation at the Chicago stock yards in regard to the recent advances in the price of beef brought out the statement that never before in the history of the American cattle market has there been such a demand for all kinds of meat as the present time. The demand for export cattle is enormous and prices will be still higher.

About 400 cattle on the market, nearly all of them light heifers, which sold at 3 to 4c. Five cents was offered and refused for a few good steers. Some plain oxen brought 31 to 41 cts. Quite a demand for mule colts, and about 50 were sold at prices ranging from $18 to $40. S. D. Goff, the past week, sent several hundred cattle to Illinois where they will be fed corn at a cost of 12c per bushel.—Whitewater Democrat.

THE Louisville Post is scattered profusely here and is having a halful effect upon those who want to believe the lies that daily dishes up. Seven-five-five new copies are sent here daily.

HOP.—The Crab Orchard Springs management has decided to have another public hop this Friday evening, which will be the last of the season. Standard and other dances are expected.

THIS is Goebel and Blackburn day at the Danville fair and the way people will go from here and elsewhere will surprise even the management, which is expecting to handle a very large crowd.

HILL LOST.—While returning home from church last Sunday, Mr. John H. Bright lost a flexible hock Sunday School bible, made by the National Publishing Co. Return to him and receive his hearty thanks.

THE little mission band (the Coral Builders) will have a Coral reception at the residence of Miss Lena Yowell at Hustonville tonight from 5 to 12 P. M. Ali are cordially invited and all free will offerings will be gladly accepted.

DR. ALCORN says in the Danville Advocate that if either Adam Carpenter or Uncle Davy Vandever is elected commissioner of agriculture, he will see to it that cyclones don't conn this way, that floods and freshets are diverted to other points and that dust and drifts will not be known during their incumbency. This ought to get them a big vote.

COMING.—Mr. J. S. Hoeker has word from Mr. R. T. Quisenberry, who went to New York in see President Spencer, of the Southern railroad, with reference to the survey of a line for his Burgin extension, that he gave him emphatic assurance that he would see to it personally that a line from Burgin to Danville and to Jellico via Stanford was run before a finally decision as to the most practical route will be made. Good. That's all we ask. Our route bound to be chosen.

HELLO SOMERSET.—Yesterday about 2:30 o'clock our telephone rang and answering Miss Nettie Wray, operator of the exchange here, said that A. D. Shortwell, the owner of the Somerset line, wanted to speak to us. It was the first time conversations were held over the line and we enjoyed it for the reason that we are now more closely connected with our Somerset friends. We also had a talk with Editor W. H. Hansford. The exchange in Somerset is operated by Miss Etta Moss, whom we infer by a remark of hers, is a very pretty girl.

THE fellow servants' bill that Senator Goebel tried to pass at the last term of the Legislature putting railroad and other employees on the same footing with passengers in regard to suits for damages, and his promise to use his best efforts for its passage should he be elected governor, are making him many friends among the railroad people who are heartily for the bill. Hon. R. C. Warren spoke of the justice of the bill at Mt. Vernon Monday and those railroad men who heard him asked him to go to Livingston and make an entire speech on the subject, and they would guarantee he would make many votes.

GOOD SHAPE.—Mr. G. W. Carter, of Turnersville, who has traveled in a number of counties, including Adams and Russell, says he found democracy in good shape. The bolters will cut a very small figure in the counties he has been in, he thinks.

SOLD HIS FARM.—Engineer J. R. Orndorff got tired of farming before he farmed at all and sold the place back to its original owner, Fred Silver Johnson, at a small loss. Mr. Johnson is about as glad to get the farm back as Mr. Orndorff was to get rid of it.

SMALL FOX.—Dr. O'Hanlon tells us that in the last six weeks he has treated 15 cases of small-pox at Rowland, all having gotten well except George Moore, his two children and John Coggs. These cases are in the same house. The disease appears to be of a very mild form.

SKULL BROKEN.—Jesse Salter broke Cornelius Cook's skull with a rock about midnight last night. Salter claims that Cook threw a cup of water on him and made what he thought was an effort to draw a pistol. Dr. O'Hanlon was called and he tells us that the wound is a bad one. Both are colored.

ADAMS & PINKERTON, of Hustonville, will be in Stanford with a special cutter from the Globe Tailoring Co., of Cincinnati, Sept. 7, taking orders for Fall and Winter clothing. Call on them at the St. Asaph Hotel.

THE Danville Fair is a pronounced success. A very large crowd attended yesterday and enjoyed a fine exhibition. Today will eclipse all records for in addition to the show, Goebel and Blackburn will speak and draw like a striking plaster.

IN THE North Jellico mines, at Gray, between 75 and 100 men from Clay and Knox are working in the places of the strikers. The striking miners make threats against the unorganized laborers, but knowing the men who are working in their steads don't dare carry them into effect.

OLD HOUSE MADE NEW.—Carpenters J. M. Stone and R. G. Jones have about completed James Dalton's house near Goshen, which is a thing of beauty. They built over the old building which is 108 years old, but it is hoped that the gentlemen wont hang themselves like the carpenter who built the old house did.

HON. M. F. NORTH will begin a speaking tour of the county commencing at Kingsville, Sept. 14, at night and then at every town and school-house in the county. No matter whom the republicans nominate Mr. North will be elected and then he will work to reduce your taxes, to pay you for working the roads, give your children cheap school books and to keep you from being oppressed by trusts and corporations. Vote for him.

LEG BAIL.—The other day while Rufus Wilburn, of Garrard, was on the rock pile working out a fine for carrying concealed weapons, he took a notion to go home. Carrying it into immediate effect, he got up and got. Some of Jaller Dillard's boys and others gave chase, but the Garrarito was too fleet of foot and getting into a corn field soon gave his pursuers the slip. He had served 20 of the 40 days assessed against him and when he is brought back, as he certainly will be, he will have to do it all over again. The jaller is onto him and it is only a question of time when he will be wearing a ball and chain.

RANEY.—At 1 o'clock this morning at his home in Danville, Mr. Wm. Gabriel Rane, after a long illness of stomach troubles, passed to his reward, aged 49. He was raised in this county and for many years made Stanford his home, moving to Danville several years ago in order to give his only son, Lee Rane, the best education possible at Centre College. He married Miss Josie Jones, a niece of C. M. Jones, and she and son are left to mourn the loss of as good a husband and as indulgent a father as ever lived. Mr. Rane was a devoted member of the Methodist church and stood high in its counsels. His brother, Mr. T. D. Rane, of this place, has not yet been informed of the hour of the funeral, but it will likely occur tomorrow morning at Danville.

HELLO SOMERSET.—Yesterday about 2:30 o'clock our telephone rang and answering Miss Nettie Wray, operator of the exchange here, said that A. D. Shortwell, the owner of the Somerset line, wanted to speak to us. It was the first time conversations were held over the line and we enjoyed it for the reason that we are now more closely connected with our Somerset friends. We also had a talk with Editor W. H. Hon. R. C. Warren spoke of the justice of the bill at Mt. Vernon Monday and those railroad men who heard him asked him to go to Livingston and make an entire speech on the subject, and they would guarantee he would make many votes.

LIQUOR LAW VIOLATORS.—The open and flagrant violations of the liquor laws in the Waynesburg section has become so unbearable that the people determined to stand if no longer, so eight warrants were sworn out against Sherman Brown and as many against Rutherford Morgan for selling whisky to minors, selling without license and selling on Sunday. Eleven warrants were also sworn out against Adams & Trobridge for similar offenses and two against Ann Lester. The trials were set for Wednesday before Squirl Singleton and County Attorney Holton went thither to prosecute, but the witnesses were conveniently absent and the cases had to be continued to the 5th. There is much indignation among the law abiding and they intend to see that the witnesses are on hand next time.

GOOD SHAPE.—Mr. G. W. Carter, of Turnersville, who has traveled in a number of counties, including Adams and Russell, says he found democracy in good shape. The bolters will cut a very small figure in the counties he has been in, he thinks.

GOOD MACCABEE TENT.

DEAR INTERIOR.—Please allow me through your excellent journal to express my appreciation of the good people of Boyle county, in and near Parksville. It was my good fortune to organize a Tent of the Macabees, in that town, on Thursday, 24th. Twenty-three of the leading citizens of that section met to take the obligation and seek the splendid protection offered by that excellent order. Their promptness surpassed anything in the history of the order in this State. Every applicant was present and each paid his degree fee and the first assessment. Being composed of representative men, I predict for the Tent a place among the leading organizations of the State. The following officers were elected and installed: Sir Knight Past Com., A. J. Adams; Sir Knight Com., W. T. Cozatt; Sir Knight Lieut. Com., L. C. Ewing; Sir Knight R. K., C. S. Parks; Sir Knight Chaplain, Rev. Jas. H. King; Sir Knight Physician, H. M. Pittman; Sir Knight Sergeant, Lee Preston; Sir Knight Master-at-Arms, Wm. Nevius; Sir Knight 1st M. of G., A. B. Humble; Sir Knight 2d M. of G., J. W. Overstreet; Sir Knight Sentinel, D. G. King; Sir Knight Picket, L. C. Jones. The hearty welcome and genuine hospitality extended to me during my short visit there, especially by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Parks, will be kindly remembered during the remainder of my pilgrimage. District Deputy, Sir Knight R. H. West, a member of Junction City Tent, solicited the membership composing Parksville Tent, doing the work in 10 days. If we had a few more such zealous deputies, as Sir Knight West, Kentucky would soon have the requisite number (5,000) to institute a Great Camp. Very Respc.,

M. F. ELKIN, D. S. C.

Following are the names of the members: T. E. Clelland, Wm. Rowsey, D. G. King, L. Jones, A. Johnson, J. L. Preston, C. P. Brown, Sam Cox, John Steward, M. Archer, J. H. King, L. Ewing, C. S. Parks, H. C. Cozatt, T. Cozatt, Wm. Nevius, A. J. Adams, Arch Fry, L. Overstreet, Sam Cosby, E. Abner, A. B. Humble and Wm. Moore.

MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED HER LITTLE DAUGHTER'S LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. E. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Cook and Wesley report their fever patients all very much improved in this community, and no new cases have showed up for some time of a typhoid form. James Cooley, of the Highland neighborhood, is boarding at present with Tifford Messer.

REMARKABLE RESCUE:
Mrs. Michael Curtiss, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled in her lungs; she was treated for a month by her physician, who said she would never get well again. She had a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself better and better. She continued to use it after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own homework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Penny's Drug Store, only 50 cents and $1, every bottle guaranteed.
